Mr. Donald Yu, Tuniu's co-founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, "We had a solid first quarter performance with net revenues and packaged tour gross bookings growing 62.8% and 62.5% year-over-year, respectively. While we continue to be impacted by a slowing demand for Europe, we observed that customers who are choosing to travel to nearby destinations instead of farther destinations continue to book with the Tuniu platform. Our total number of trips continues to rapidly grow at 80.2% year-over-year and our returning customer contributed 43.6% of our gross booking during the first quarter. This reflects our customers' loyalty and preference for Tuniu as a comprehensive provider of leisure travel services."

Mr. Alex Yan, Tuniu's co-founder, President and Chief Operating Officer, said, "As Tuniu continues to lead the organized tour segment in terms of market share, we will also put increased emphasis on self-guided tours. Self-guided tours in China has the potential of becoming a significant driver for leisure travel because many younger generation travelers or seasoned travelers often prefer to explore destinations with a flexible schedule. By increasing our procurement capabilities for diversified products, expanding our offerings in hotels and air tickets, and strengthening our supply chain management capabilities, Tuniu can efficiently provide products to meet travelers' demand for self-guided tours. We believe that our ability to dynamically bundle together air ticket and hotel with vast amount of localized resources such as destination-based services and tours is our key competitive advantage in self-guided tours."

Mr. Conor Yang, Tuniu's Chief Financial Officer, said, "Tuniu is becoming increasingly diversified as our other revenue grew 506.9% year-over-year during the first quarter. Additional product categories such as hotel booking, air ticketing, financial services and insurance services are reaching scale to start making meaningful contribution to our revenue. In addition, as our additional product categories expand, operational synergy between our core leisure travel business and additional product categories is developing into our long-term competitive advantage."
